Permaculture Design Certification: Permaculture is an integrative design science for the creation of sustainable human settlement. Its holistic, systems-based principles can be applied to all settings, and permaculture represents a growing profession worldwide. Graduates earn a recognized Permaculture Design Certification.

The Ojai Foundation is a renowned educational center situated on 40 acres of semi-wilderness at the foot of the Los Padres Mountains. For over 30 years, it has modeled living lightly on the earth and served as a living laboratory of sustainability. Integrating permaculture into its design, the property features solar electrical systems, a living roof, and a diversity of natural building techniques. Coupled with the land's natural beauty, The Ojai Foundation nurtures and transforms visitors while providing inspiration to honor our deep connection with Nature. www.ojaifoundation.org
