

ORGANIC GARDENING Course

2016 growing season
taught by JOHN RICHARDSON

- Lifelong organic farmer from Santa Cruz, San Mateo and Mendocino Counties

Do you want to eat the freshest, tastiest and most nutritious food? Organic gardening is easy, healthy and nurturing. Grounding through working with the earth is shown to benefit both physical and mental health and well being.

The course is comprehensive and will teach the basics of Organic Gardening and Farming.

SATURDAYS 10:00AM - 11:15AM at Baywood Park Community Gardens
1391 Second Street, Baywood Park, CA 93402

5/7 - Introduction to Organic Gardening and Farming	8/6 - Fermentation - Pickles, Sauerkraut and Kimchi
5/14 - Soil & Soil Fertility	8/13 - Composting
5/21 - Selecting Varieties, Propagation & Transplanting	8/20 - Starch Crops and Grains
6/4 - Timing and the Moon	8/27 - High Tunnels, Low Tunnels and Row Covers - Season Extension
6/11 - Irrigation & Water Conservation	9/3 - Crop Rotation and Companion Planting
6/25 - Cultivation & Fertilization	9/10 - Biodynamics & Permaculture
7/9 - Pests & Diseases	9/17 - Planting Garlic, Shallots and Bulbs
7/16 - Harvesting Onions, Garlic & Bulbs	9/24 - Cover Crops
7/23 - Livestock - Sustainability	10/1 - Winter Peas & Beans-Varieties for Fall
7/30 - Planting the Winter Garden Growing Long Season Vegetables	10/8 - Harvest & Storage

20 STUDENT MAXIMUM - $10 drop in fee, $90 ten class card or $180 Season Pass Trade and alternative currencies accepted. Classes Transferable.

Contact 805.305.3327 or hypsiziquis@yahoo.com for more information and registration.