

The Ojai Foundation is pleased to present our Winter Work Retreat

A Two Week Immersion in Mindful Service and Ceremonial Practices
Step out of time for a moment to deepen your relationship to self, others and our planet

February 12 through 27, 2009

Earthbag Construction

using Nader Khalili's super adobe

Personal Vision Quest and Sweat Lodge Ceremony (optional)

Facilitators:

Rachel Dawson and Doug Adrianson

with Paul Perrota

$250 for 2 weeks

with team oriented service projects

This two-week program offers the opportunity to be of service to our 40 acres of beautiful semi-wilderness land and live close to nature as you deepen your relationship with yourself while exploring the ceremonial practices and philosophies on which The Ojai Foundation bases its work.

Includes: Hands-on Projects such as yurt building, mural painting, kiva repair, The Way of Council teaching and practices, Medicine Wheel Teachings, Self Exploration ceremonies, Daily Meditation, Co-Created Community Pot Lucks, Arts Evening, and Rustic Shared Accommodations

Rachel Dawson is The Ojai Foundation's Land Steward and Volunteer Coordinator. For eight years, she worked with TreePeople in Los Angeles, supporting community-based tree planting projects. She is a graduate of Larry Santoyo's L.A. Permaculture Design Course and Ariel Spilsbury's 13 Moon Priestess Ordination. She continues to deepen her relationship with spirit through her advanced work in the Third Road faerie tradition.

Doug Adrianson believes council, ceremony and nature can enrich anyone's life, and the sooner the better. A lifelong writer and editor who loves the power and mystery of language, for 10 years he has spiraled deeper and deeper into the work of The Ojai Foundation. He is an experienced council trainer and co-chair of The Ojai Foundation's Board of Directors. He facilitates rite-of-passage retreats for teenagers and adults, both in Ojai and elsewhere, and has been a weekly council-circle leader at five schools.

First trained in the Yaqui way, Paul Perrota has been guiding Sweat Lodge ceremonies for over 15 years to help others develop and nurture an intimate relationship with nature and with self.

To apply, please contact Rachel at pathofservice@ojaifoundation.org or call or visit our website
Space is limited.

Please apply before February 5th

The Ojai Foundation
9739 Ojai Santa Paula Rd.
(805) 646-8343
www.ojaifoundation.org