

Getting Nature Connected Weekend Series

September 2010-July 2011
Santa Cruz, CA

Getting Nature Connected is an immersion into building relationships with all aspects of the natural world in a way that produces knowledge of place and weaves our lives with the rhythms of nature.

This 8-Weekend Series is designed to bring participants through a personal and community journey in reconnecting with the land in fun, engaging, deep, and powerful ways - most importantly, through their own senses and life experience.

Each weekend includes Friday Night Storytelling with internationally recognized author and speaker Jon Young, and Saturday all day out in the field.

Weekend Topics:

1. Core Routines of Nature Connection
2. Making the Link - Ecological Connections
3. Holistic Tracking and Humans as a Keystone Species
4. The Art of Survival - Fire Skills & Trees
5. Intuitive Awareness - The Language of the Earth
6. Bird Language - Listening to the Language of the Birds
7. How to Know the Plants & the Art of Wild Foraging
8. How to Know the Mammals - Trailing & Tracking

Tuition: Whole Series = $895*, Single Weekend = $135 each
(*Includes 4 additional Seasonal Community Festivals)

Children: Each weekend includes simultaneous kids programs

Location: Santa Cruz Waldorf School, 2190 Empire Grade Santa Cruz, CA

For more info: www.JonYoung.org/GetNature