Earth Day Celebration

Saturday, April 23

Morning Activity Fair

10am - 12:30pm

Everyone is welcome to come and browse our environmental booths and participate in the activities.

Organic Gardening

Hands-on activities include seed planting, tools for organic gardening, and tasting local organic fruits and veggies.

Children's Nature Walk

Children of all ages join us for an outdoor adventure of San Juan

Creek. We will be planting native wildflower seeds, conducting stream surveys & having fun!

Natural Earth Building

Hands-on activities include creating your own cob piece and learning the art of earth building.

Afternoon Workshop 1 - 4 pm

Duane Elgin and Coleen LeDrew look beneath the surface turbulence of our times to explore the deeper trends that are transforming our world. Coleen has an MA in Cultural Anthropology and Social Transformation. See Duane's bio.

Emerging Ways of Living Sustainability, Simplicity & Community

Join us for an inspiring workshop to discuss this pivotal time in history and what we can do in our personal and collective lives to build a promising vision for the future. Explore simpler, more ecological ways of living. Learn about sustainability. Expand your connection with community and all of life.

1 - 4 pm $15.00 (Childcare available for $3.00 per child per hour.)

Organic Dinner 7 - 9:30 pm

Duane Elgin is author of Voluntary Simplicity and Promise Ahead. He's been in the forefront of exploring humanity's evolutionary journey, sustainable living and the convergence of the new science with the world's wisdom traditions.

The World at the Tipping Point

Join us for an organic dinner and interactive presentation with Duane Elgin. The evening will begin with an organic meal made with local, fresh produce prepared by Deanna Moore. Following dinner Duane will share unprecedented Earth changes and teach us ways we can pull together to create a positive future. He'll lead us in mini-conversations and give us fresh insights into our journey ahead.

7 - 9:30 pm $25.00 (Childcare available for $3.00 per child per hour.)

(Please bring your own plate and utensils)
