

Saturday July 25th from 1-3 PM

The first monthly:

Speak Freely Pow Wow*

A pot luck mixer aimed at bringing youth into politics & activism by introducing them to strong community leaders that encourage self determination Every month we will feature Los Angeles artistic talent and performers TBA*

LET'S BREAK BREAD AND BARRIERS

Guest Speakers:

Art Goldberg:

Working peoples champion, leader of the Free Speech and Anti-war movement in Berkeley and local provocateur*

Carmello Alvarez:

Has been a Youth Advocate and Cultural Promoter for over 30 years.
He was instrumental in forming the first West Coast Hip Hop Youth Center named the Radio Tron, Peace and Justice Center, Not A Cornfield, Casa Del Tunnel and currently developing his 15th project, a Youth Leadership Initiative for the Graff Lab.

Ellen Lubic:

Educational researcher and college lecturer in Public Policy
also Prejudice Reduction and Conflict Management, a lifetime activist in Progressive politics and civil rights. Member of Human Relations Commissions in Los Angeles and Santa Barbara Counties, Director of Valuing Differences in Human Encounters, one of the first women to long board surf in the late 1950s and 1960s. and she speaks freely about this month's current topic:

What do we want? "Coverage"
When do we want it? "NOW!"

Please come and speak freely* And bring a tasty dish to share !

3110 N Broadway. Los Angeles, CA 90037

