

Santa Barbara Public Library System

Green@YourLibrary Spring Programs

Global Warming: Thinking it Through Together

James Lawrence Powell

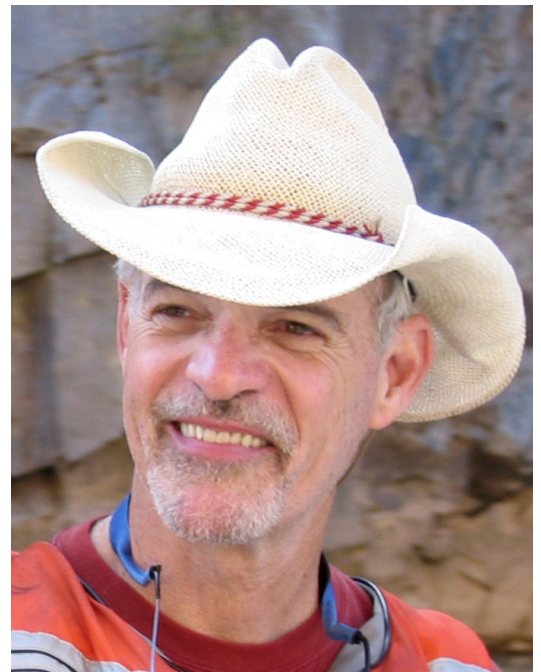

Is global warming true, or false?
Whether you are a skeptic or a believer,
Dr. Jim Powell invites everyone to explore the odds with him in this free illustrated lecture.

Wednesday April 18, 7-8:30 pm

Svang Library, Veteran's Hall,
1745 Mission Drive 805 688-4214

Thursday April 19, 6:30-8 pm

Central Library, Faulkner Gallery,
40 E. Anapamu St. 805 564-5604

Dr. Powell has written nine books about earth science.

Presidents Reagan and George H.
W. Bush both appointed him to the National Science Board, where he served for 12 years.

For more information, contact LWatts@SantaBarbaraCA.gov

www.sbplibrary.org

If you need special assistance to participate in this event, please contact Library Administration at (805) 564-5608.

This project is supported by the U.S. Institute of Museum and Library Services under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act, administered in California by the State Librarian.

Co-sponsored by the Community Environmental Council, SBCC Center for Sustainability, the Santa Barbara Permaculture Network and the Santa Ynez Valley Natural History Society

