

skill-building

2017 Seedsaving Workshop

3

with

April 22

Larry Kandarian

"ancient grains & organic seed farming"

LOCATION:

Kandarian Organic Farms
Los Osos Valley Road

CELEBRATE EARTHDAY

PARKING!! at 12:45pm

Parking is very limited at the farm, so please park by 12:45 in the St. Benedict's Episcopal Church lot at the corner of Clark Valley Road and Los Osos Valley Road and we'll carpool the mile to Larry's.

1:00-3:00pm review of seed saving basics & recordkeeping, farming fundamentals for seed crops, heritage grains, sourcing organic seeds, cleaning seeds, & whatever Larry wants to share with us.

Larry Kandarian grew up on a Central Valley farm and continued to farm after receiving a degree in mechanical engineering. Larry is our local source of commercially available organic heirloom wheats, lentils, bell beans, barley, and other staple crops. His voracious appetite for exploring and farming new crop varieties is creating a new category of farmer, called Larry Kandarian! Look for him at several local farmers markets.

27 May strawberries

24 June summer fruits surprise

community harvest

23 September native plants

hosted by

22

July

$15 per workshop

26

August

For map & directions email Elizabeth at stteresa@kcbx.net
(tel) 805-543-5364